POPE FRANCIS: DURING ADVENT, ASK JESUS TO TEACH US TO PRAY

At the Wednesday General audience, Pope Francis began a new cycle of catechesis, which will focus on the Lord's prayer.

After concluding his reflections on the Ten Commandments at last week's General Audience, Pope Francis on Wednesday launched a new series of catechesis, which will focus on the "Our Father."

"The Gospels have given us a very vivid portrait of Jesus as a man of prayer," the Pope said in the introductory catechetical instruction. Despite the importance of His mission, and the demands placed on Him by the people, Jesus often felt the need "to withdraw into solitude and pray." This was evident from the very beginning of His mission, after the initial success of his ministry in Galilee.

"In some places in the Scriptures," Pope Francis continued, "it seems that it is Jesus' prayer above all, His intimacy with the Father, that governs everything." This is particularly evident during the agony in the garden, before the Crucifixion.

The Holy Father said that, although Jesus prayed like other people do, there was also a profound mystery about His prayer to His Father. That is why His disciples asked Him, "Lord, teach us to pray." Jesus does not want to keep His intimacy with His Father to Himself, but "came precisely in order to introduce us into this relationship with the Father."

We too must make our own the prayer of the disciples: "Lord, teach us to pray." "Even if we have been praying for many years," Pope Francis said, "we always have something to learn." Recalling the parable of the publican and the Pharisee, the Holy Father said the first step in prayer is to humble ourselves before God.

Pope Francis concluded his first reflection on the prayer of Jesus with the advice to repeat often, during Advent, the prayer of the disciples: "Master, teach us to pray." If we do this, he said, then God will certainly not let our prayer go unanswered.

Lighting the Second Advent Candle

The prophet Isaiah declares,
"A young woman is with child
and shall bear a son,
and shall name Him Immanuel
[which means: God-With-Us]"
The risen Christ declares,
"I am with you always,
to the end of the ages."

(Isaiah 7:14 and Matthew 28:20)

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR DECEMBER

Evangelization – In the Service of the Transmission of Faith

That people, who are involved in the service and transmission of faith, may find, in their dialogue with culture, a language suited to the conditions of the present time.
