LETTER TO THE DIOCESE OF IMMIGRANTS

MOST REVEREND NICHOLAS DiMARZIO, Ph.D., D.D.
BISHOP OF BROOKLYN

DECEMBER 2016

In the Apostolic Letter of Pope Francis closing the Year of Mercy, our Holy Father begins with the words, “Misericordia et Misera” which were the words St. Augustine used in recounting the story of Jesus’ meeting with the woman caught in adultery (Jn 8:1-11). Saint Augustine describes the event by giving the two new names to Christ and the adulterers, “Mercy with misery.” Our Holy Father reminds us that although the Year of Mercy ends, the showing of mercy to those confronted with misery is important. The spiritual and corporal works of mercy, especially welcoming the stranger, are founded on the beatitudes that Jesus annunciated on the Mount; they are the best ways of evangelizing the world today.

This letter is written as comfort and support to the many immigrants – documented and undocumented – who find themselves in our diocese in Brooklyn and Queens and who at the present time, find themselves in a miserable condition because of a change of the administration of our Nation which has threatened many with deportation. There is no doubt that we need to restore sensible immigration policies in our nation, notwithstanding the need for security in our country which is compromised by the presence of 11 million undocumented persons. The deportation of these people will not guarantee security. We know that a wall between the United States and Mexico, will not remedy the situation. As the poet Robert Frost said, “Walls do not make good neighbors,” and will not alone insure security. Dialogue with our neighbors is most important. And the legalization of those already here who are well established and working is a critical necessity.

The Bishops of the United States, in solidarity with all immigrants, have pledged to advocate for just and equitable laws governing migration to our country. I, as your bishop, speak to you immigrants and to all members of our Church who stand ready to assist you and understand your plight. You, and the many of you who have American-born children, will be the subject of our advocacy and protection as far as we can offer it to you. Please be assured that we will always welcome the stranger amongst us, no matter what is your legal status, and exhort the fellow members of our diocese in Brooklyn and Queens to do the same. The law of God takes precedence over human laws, and to this we must be witnesses.

As the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe is celebrated today, you may be assured that we pledge our support and invoke the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of Mexico and Patroness of the Americas, to whose intercession we fly unto at this time of need.

THE POPE'S INTENTIONS FOR DECEMBER FOR 2016

Universal: End to Child-Soldiers

That the scandal of child-soldiers may be eliminated from the world over.

Evangelization: Europe

That the peoples of Europe may rediscover the beauty, goodness, and truth of the Gospel which gives joy and hope to life.

As we celebrate the season of Advent in preparation for the beautiful celebration of Christmas, let us pray for all of our sisters and brothers who, for whatever reason, do not regularly join us in the Sunday celebration of the Holy Mass, that they will feel welcome at Christmas and throughout the year.

Third Sunday of Advent

It's Gaudete (Rejoice) Sunday! We light the third (rose-colored) candle on our Advent wreath. On Gaudete Sunday, the season of Advent shifts its focus. For the first two weeks of Advent, the focus can be summed up in the phrase, "The Lord is coming." But beginning with Gaudete Sunday, the summary might be, "The Lord is near." This shift is marked by a lighter mood and a heightened sense of joyous anticipation. Liturgically, the colors lighten as well. The priest usually wears rose-colored vestments, a hue seen only on Gaudete Sunday and Laetare Sunday. In times when the focus of our anticipation is often on the negative and fearful, this celebration is a reminder that God who loves us is still in charge and that we await his coming not with fear, but with tremendous joy.

WHY DO PRIESTS WEAR ROSE –COLORED VESTMENT ON THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT?

- A. The third Sunday of Advent is known as Gaudete Sunday or Rejoice Sunday.
- B. Gaudete is the Latin word that means rejoice. This is why priests have the option of wearing rose pink on this particular Sunday and we light the rose candle signifying Jesus, our Love is on the way.
- C. The third Sunday of Advent indicates that the penitential aspect of Advent is coming to an end and soon we will be rejoicing the celebration of Christmas.
