Immaculate Conception Center, Douglaston, NY

Keynote Speaker: Sr. Maria Regina Immaculata, S.V.

Our Lady as the Model Disciple

Sr. Maria Regina grew up in Michigan and entered the Sisters of Life in 2010. She made her first vows in 2013 and served for a year in the Holy Respite mission in Manhattan, where pregnant women live with the Sisters, and for two years in their crisis pregnancy mission in Toronto, Canada. She now serves as an assistant to the novice director at the Motherhouse in Suffern, NY. Sr. Maria Regina will be speaking about Our Lady as the model disciple, and how we, as Catholic women, can learn from her in various passages in the Gospels; how we can become missionary disciples and share this gift with others.

English Workshop Speaker:

Holly Wright serves as Director of Casa Guadalupe, a house of prayer, healing and vocational discernment for women in Clifton, NJ. She is a consecrated lay-missionary and has served with Corazon Puro, an organization focused on chastity using St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body, for the past 8 years. Her focus will be on women, who with their feminine genius, are natural missionary disciples.
