MEMO TO WYD: FORGET THE PROGRAM, TEACH YOUTH ABOUT THE MARTYRS

KRAKOW - Quite probably, the Islamic State-inspired assassins who cut the throat of Father Jacques Hamel in St. Étienne-du-Rouvray, France, on Tuesday did not know that one effect of their act would be to cast a pall over World Youth Day, but that's nevertheless exactly what's happened.

World Youth Day is the massive gathering of Catholic youth from around the planet unfolding this week in Krakow, Poland, known tongue-in-cheek as the "Catholic Woodstock" because it's normally a pumped-up celebration of fun, family and faith.

This week, however, will have a more somber tone because of the barbarity of what happened to Hamel, this time not in Iraq, Syria or some other battle-scarred locale, but in the very heart of Europe.

For the rest of this week, young pilgrims taking part in WYD will be experiencing a series of catechetical and formation sessions, led by bishops and other world-class teachers, apologists and experts. In light of what's happened, whatever pre-packaged talk a given presenter had ready probably should be tossed out the window, and instead WYD should use this chance to educate young Catholics around the realities of anti-Christian violence around the world.

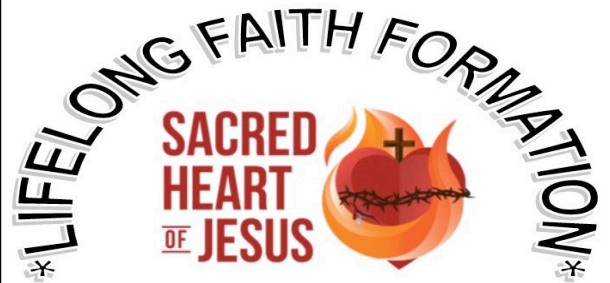

The suffering these new martyrs endure should not be forgotten, and the awful coincidence of World Youth Day now unfolding under the shadow of Hamel's martyrdom gives organizers the chance to educate Catholic youth at a moment when they're likely to be especially receptive.

The basis for a meaningful, and eye-opening, education is already here in Krakow. On Friday, for instance, during the Way of the Cross, Coptic Christians from Iraq will pray the Our Father in Aramaic, and their bishop will be speaking at a center for English-language pilgrims sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.

So, memo to WYD catechists: Seize this opportunity, and don't let it go to waste. The story of Father Hamel, and of countless other Christians just like him all around the world, deserves to reach the next generation.

Encounter Christ

At the invitation of Bishop DiMarzio, our parish is beginning ARISE Together in Christ, a process of spiritual renewal presented by RENEW International. All parishioners are welcome to join.

What is ARISE Together in Christ? ARISE is a three year parish centered process of spiritual renewal and evangelization. The ARISE process is one of the most recent among those that RENEW International offers.

How will ARISE Together in Christ help this parish? ARISE enables people to: deepen their faith, develop a closer relationship with Christ, grow in community and reach out in service to others.

Why are all parishes in our diocese asked to participate in ARISE Together in Christ?

Bishop DiMarzio has invited all Catholics of our diocese to come together to form a renewed community of faith, to welcome back those who may have been distanced from the Church and to spread the good News through active commitment to charity and justice.
