A Note from Fr. Joe Nolan

My dear Sacred Heart Gospel Choir,

I have never stopped thinking of you as the most talented gospel choir that I have ever heard and never thought you could get better though the years.

That you should give me any thought on the subject is flattering.

That you should want to sing at the celebration was overwhelming.

It was the highlight of the day in the celebration.

In my heart I have never ceased to love you.

Thank you and may God bless and you all.

Dear Father Hilaire,

Your presence at my anniversary birthday celebration was the most unexpected surprises I have experienced in years.

Your kind words were the most flattering I have ever heard.

Expressing your thought under such circumstances was most kind.

All in all you made my day.

I thank you with all my heart.

Yours Sincerely,
